

About Advancing Indigenous Missions...

WHO WE ARE

Our Mission: Advancing Indigenous Missions (AIM) has been called by God to seek out, evaluate, and support Indigenous Mission Groups who are targeting unreached people groups and assisting them to develop indigenous churches.

As a Canadian registered charity, one of AIM's main goals is to link Canadian churches to the indigenous church movement around the world. Through mutual encouragement, training, accountability, and support, AIM seeks to build up indigenous Christian church pastors and leaders and to minister in their local communities.

WHAT WE DO

As Canadians, we have the opportunity to come alongside the leaders of the independent church movement around the world. In countries such as India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Uganda, Colombia and the Philippines, AIM works to establish partnerships with indigenous missionaries in four main ways: (1) connecting Canadian churches with indigenous missions, (2) raising financial support for the missionaries we work with, (3) helping lead Leadership Training Seminars (LTS's), and (4) bringing indigenous mission leaders to Canada to share their vision, passion, and stories with us.
